

Warranty Certificate

Röben Tonbaustoffe GmbH, 26340 Zetel, provides a

30-year warranty

for the 1. rate roof tiles manufactured in-house in the following context:

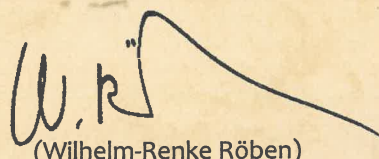

1. For a period of thirty years, calculated as at the date of delivery, we guarantee that our roof tiles comply with DIN EN 1304 in terms of their frost resistance. The version of DIN EN 1304 at the date of delivery is decisive.

If our roof tiles verifiably fail to comply with these requirements during the warranty period and cannot perform their required function, we provide replacement ex-works free of charge for all roof tiles which do not comply with DIN EN 1304 and have become verifiably dysfunctional due to frost.

During the period of five years from the date of delivery, we furthermore take over the roofing costs for the replacement of the roof tiles which do not comply with DIN EN 1304 and have become dysfunctional due to frost. We reserve the right to perform the work ourselves or have the work executed by a company commissioned by us.

2. The warranty excludes damages created by mechanical defects, extraordinary weather conditions, gale winds and/or cases of force majeure as well as roof tiles which can be reused at a different location.
3. We shall not bear the costs of dismantling and reinstalling solar systems and other roof structures or any storage costs for these items. No compensation is provided for feed-in losses incurred between the disassembly and reassembly of the solar system
4. Prerequisites for a warranty according to this warranty certificate are:
 - the roof tiles were installed according to the state of the art, the technical regulations of the ZVDH (Central Association of the German Roofing Trade as well as in consideration of the minimum ventilation cross-sections according to DIN 4108-3 (the respectively current version applies for all specified regulations and standards); and
 - we have to be informed of the warranty case in writing within one month upon detection of the damage by presenting this Warranty Certificate, in connection with the original proof of purchase;
 - we have to be given the opportunity to inspect and examine the damage prior to the repair.
5. Claims against us/our company beyond the warranty services specified in this Warranty Certificate are excluded. Claims based on intentional and/or grossly negligent conducts by our company and/or our employees as well as mandatory statutory claims based on the violation of life, limb or health and claims according to the Product Liability Act remain unaffected. Claims of the customer against his supplier are not affected by this Warranty Certificate.
6. This warranty is subject to the laws of the Federal Republic of Germany.
